

The Board of EMBENTION SISTEMAS INTELIGENTES S.A., company dedicated to the “Design, development, manufacturing and sales of: autopilots, radiolinks, electronics for installations, electronic speed regulators for electric motors, drone launchers, recovery equipment and UAVs. Technical assistance for equipment adaptation”; through this present document, has the subject to establish the main directives of our Company, in search of:

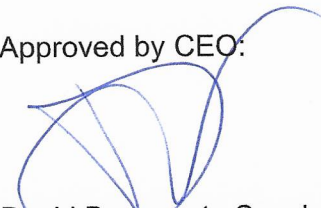

- Assure the continuous improvement of the delivered service, satisfying the requirements of our interested parties, as well as the applicable legal regulations.
- Provide a reference framework to establish and revisit the quality objectives.
- That our continuous improvement could be perceived and appreciated by our interested parties.
- Achieve a high degree of fidelization of our interested parties.

For this reason, having as the reference our Quality Management System, were established the following directives:

- The Board assumes the compromise to accomplish the Quality Policy, his objectives, and to lead the development and implementation of the Quality Management System, looking for a way to improve his proficiency.
- The personnel of Embention has the obligation to accomplish the regulations exposed in the proceedings and manuals, actuating always with the risks evaluation in mind.
- Maintain permanent contacts with our interested parties, to know his demands, looking for adapt our practices to their needs.
- Improve the qualification of our personnel, looking for personal realization, a better work environment and an improvement in the service delivered.
- The organization employs the risk evaluation methodology, to prevent deviations or Non Conformities in the quality management system.

Being said so, the Board of EMBENTION SISTEMAS INTELIGENTES S.A., signs the present policy and assumes the compromise to maintain and divulge to the public the present policy.

Approved by CEO:

David Benavente Sanchez
Dated: 22-2-2022